

FROM LEE'S HIDDEN PILOT ..October 1970

through fleshly guise shines the smaller self exuding .. an inner eye finds the path to rise ... to rise

where coruscating rays of the Master reign inner roads end 'neath a cap of light a warmth ... a rising tide ..

who finds his future told in loss of smaller goal
the light that ever is awaits the abdication of self..

when self finds Self in the Master's mold gain is felt not told..

THE GREAT WHEEL OF TRUTH

"The person that is seen in the eye that is the Self. This is the immortal, the fearless, this is Brahman (God)", Sankara wrote. "Brahman although devoid of qualities is spoken of, for the purpose of devotion, as possessing qualities depending on name and form, we have already shown. And we have moreover shown that to attribute to Brahman a definite locality, in spite of his omnipresence, subserves the purpose of contemplation, and is therefore not contrary to reason. No evil attacks him who knows the person within the eye, and therefore knows the latter to be Brahman".
