

Lee Avera
Just before awakening 7:15 a.m. May 12, 1987

Suddenly I was in a large room, aware that my consciousness was in one of my subtle bodies, without any physical sensation beyond complete tranquillity. I could see but it was by some analogue of eyeball vision. I could hear no sound of anykind, but was aware of receiving and being able to transmit mentally.

Around me was a large auditorium sort of reception area or room. Before and around me were sort of resting benches of some kind, sort of like one finds in bus depots.

I became aware that the persona I knew to be a Ray ~~had~~ had joined me in that place. Ray, a very good ~~and~~ friend of many years had translated from his physical body last October.

I did some indescribable something similar to grabbing both his shoulders with my hands and communicated "My god how you've been missed, Ray!" (Although Ray had no shoulders and I had no hands.) He communicated to me the fact that he was badly frightened by the fact he had discovered that he was missing in his awareness all the memories and experiences which he felt made him to be a person named Ray ~~!~~!

I calmed him down, assuring him that all of his memories and experiences were being kept for him and would be returned and for him to let go and relax that all was okay. It's the law, I told him, come I'll show you. I led him over to a sort of translucent large container and it could be observed that within the chamber were swirling lights and dim shapes. I explained to Ray that it was the law that when an entity was ready ALL his memories and experiences are made available to him at his own choosing.

I then broadcast a communication to someone or somewhere that I knew was already in contact with me, asking what do you do about all those who come here wanting to be with a certain family group?

What came back to me was something like a chuckle and the answer said "All of you people on this earth are part of the same family if you care to dig deeply enough into your past memories and past experiences! Each one coming here ~~are~~ are part of at least six immediate families - we try to place them where we think they would want to be. Anyway as soon as their memories and experiences are made all available to them they can be in any family grouping they want to be!"

My friend Ray asked me, "Where am I and where will I be when I find my memories and experiences?"

I answered him, "where ever what you consider to be most of what you feel comprises yourself, wants to be!"

After communicating that oddly phrased answer I found myself again in my physical body and with the personal consciousness I am most recently familiar with!

Lee