

College Park Quarterly Meeting Winter Quarter

“Prophetic Witness and Hope in Difficult Times”

January 19, 2019

Palo Alto Meeting's Public Meeting for Worship, to Affirm Religious Freedom, February, 2017

Keynote Speaker: Brent Bill

Join Quaker author and traveling minister Brent Bill as we explore how to speak faithfully and truthfully in difficult times to the values our Friendly faith holds dear. We'll explore how early Friends spoke to their times and what lessons we can take from them. How can we be for instead of against (for peace, for equality, etc), thereby sustaining a witness based in deep faith that supersedes administrations/governments and offers a winsome invitation for others to join us.

Schedule: 8:00am-5:30pm

8:00 am On-site registration $

8:30 am Worship, followed by

Morning and afternoon plenary sessions, lunch, keynote speaker, worship-sharing, interest groups. A limited number of evening meals can be arranged for those who pre-pay at registration.

Concurrent Children's & Teen programs.

Saturday Overnight Teen Program. Parents of teens staying overnight, please fill out Medical consent & Permission forms available at: <http://collegeparkquarterlymeeting.org>

Overnight Hospitality Needs? Contact Betz Miller betzmillier@comcast.net

If You Can't Attend in Person videostreaming of the keynote speaker will be available. Individuals or small groups who would like to attend remotely, please contact Eric Sabelman at eesabelman@gmail.com or 650-322-2455 .

Hosted by Redwood Forest Friends Meeting at Family Bible Church, 697 Benicia Dr, Santa Rosa, CA 95409